Downtown Harlingen Jam Sessions to Begin November 14

Downtown Harlingen announces the second season of the popular event, “Jammin’ on Jackson Street with Vance Greek & Friends,” to be held on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays* of each month this fall and winter, beginning in November 2013 and continuing through March 2014. The jam sessions will be held inside The Railroad Crossing, a model railroad clubhouse and family event center located at 101 E. Jackson in Downtown Harlingen. The jam sessions are free and open to the public on a first-come, first-served basis.

Well-known musician Vance Greek and friends will host the jam sessions, in which a wide range of local musicians will participate. The music will be mostly country, folk, bluegrass, gospel, etc. Musicians who are interested in participating should arrive with their instruments, at least 30 minutes before the session is set to begin. Two 45-minute sessions are planned each Thursday, beginning at 10:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Seating will be on a first-come, first-served basis, with the facility cleared after each show. There is plenty of free parking in Downtown Harlingen, both on the street and in the large public parking lot directly behind the facility, between 1st and 2nd Streets.
